KEY 74

Bishop McGuinness Memorial High School
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

To one who stands as a shadow . . .

Mrs. Nell Glowka

Many times throughout life we hear of someone man has chosen to honor because of the work he has done to help other people. Often we do not see, we do not realize that, without someone who stands as a shadow, much of the work which must be done would never be completed. With this in mind, the graduates of 1974 have chosen to dedicate our annual to Mrs. Nell Glowka. To us, this woman is a leader and the summation of all the Christian ideals taught to all who pass through the portals of Bishop McGuinness High School.

To the students, Mrs. Glowka is an aspirin when, because of a lack of sleep, an unwelcome headache comes around. Or sometimes she is the quick excuse to go back to class before Sister Martin's overwhelming enthusiasm sends us back. For the teachers, among other things, she is a hot cup of coffee on a rough morning. To all, she is a hardworking person who would do anything for us whom she loves.

Though it seems a small token of our gratitude for all the times you've helped us, we say thank you with this Key and with much love. Because of your sweet smile, your unending kindness and eagerness to help us, we give special honor to you today and hope you will not be only a shadow to those who follow us.

Dear Miss Kirby,

After four years at Bishop McGuinness, we shall never be able to remember it without your coming to mind. You're more a part of Bishop than anyone. You maintain the sports and health of the whole school. The boys have really missed out by not having you for basketball, tennis and health. You are the only person we know who will go down in history as the most versatile team starter ever to hit Winston-Salem. We've "shack smelled" for four years and were glad you kept reminding us.

This is just a little note of thanks from us to you to let you know how wonderful and patient we think you are.

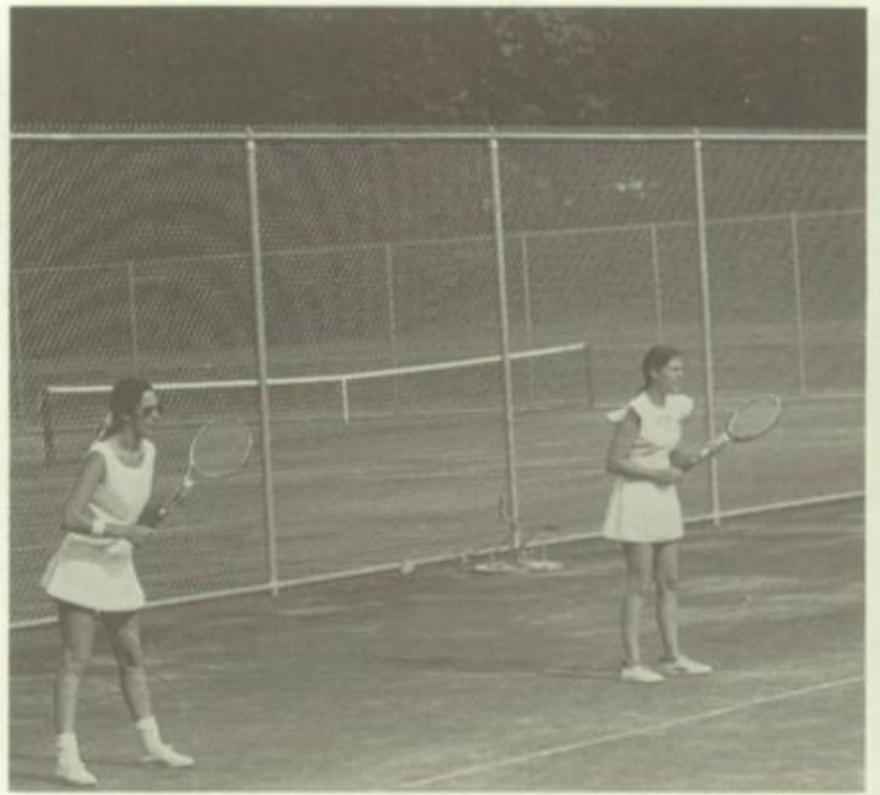

Love,

Juniors, What Next?

All Carnivals are fun and the junior's Cotton Candy Carnival was no exception. Their program consisted of a ring-leader, magic show, and can-can girls. There were also several sidebrows. The food was typical carnival food, hot dogs, candy apples, etc. Some of the costumes were quite good, especially the clowns worn by Ann Lambert and Patricia McGillan. The Juniors also received two fantastic pictures in the Journal and Sentinel (nothing personal). Note! The Juniors would just like to say to the Freshmen that their victory was just "beginners luck" and look out next year.

Richard Canoval as his trained beast helped to make the Juniors' Carnival even more hilarious.

The Sophomores chose a very original idea for their Color Week theme: "Caribbean Blue". It certainly was applauded by all present.

The exotic dishes and atmosphere was quite spectacular. Commencing with the limbo dance and the crowning of the Caribbean king (Michael Douglas) the skit was attractive from beginning to end. By the way, according to the young men of McGuinness, the chorus girls certainly added to the enjoyable climate.

Parlez-vous Francais, Oui ou Non?

Practically all of the students at Bishop McGuinness are taking one of the four languages offered: German, Latin, Spanish or French. Speaking of French, the staff asked some of our non French speaking population to try their hand at some translation. The results:

Aimes moi, Aimes mon chien.

Tommy Campbell: Something vulgar.
 Alan Schumacher: Roger Kaputnick.

Mike Cheek: Are you a Chinese meat-eater?
 Richard Hammond: A greeting.
 Rhonda Brannon: Are you feeling all right?
 (Was that directed at me?)

Chris Murrell: I have no idea.
 Bill Bienenmann: How are y'll doin'?

Harvey Hairton: Sounds like a . . . (Never did finish)
 Father Silvestri: Tres bien. I am beautiful.
 Mr. Renegar: There's a hole under the arm of your sweater.

Lisa Horsfall: Won't you come to dinner?
 Donna Froehling: What does this mean?
 An anonymous spaniard: Yo no se.

John Richardson: It's a rumor about Sim.
 Tommy Bruce: You do it, you clean it up.
 Mary Carter: It's something about love.

Chad Smith: I love my mother.
 John Shepherd: This is dog city.
 Graylin Coleson: It's my nature.
 Marvin Collins: Yo amo tu?

Oh well, not too far off. The real meaning: "Love me, love my dog."

The Winning Freshmen

Green eggs and ham? Ugh! The Freshmen have proven themselves to be quite likable along with showing that the little baby Freshmen are not as small as they at first appeared. They completely shocked the upper classes and turned them "green" with envy when the Freshmen class walked off with first place in Color Week.

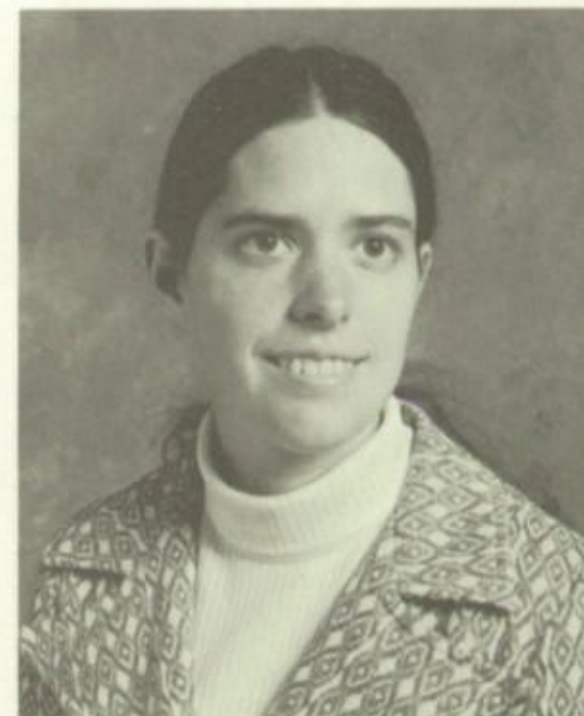

They deserved all the honors they received. The costumes which depicted everything from salt and pepper shakers to houses were terrific. The cuisine, which consisted of eggs and ham, was superb and the skit itself, was very well done.

We are proud to possess such a talented group of students in our school ranks. We are also proud to announce that Mark Smith has been chosen as the Freshman Class Cutie for the year 1973-74.

Coming School Play

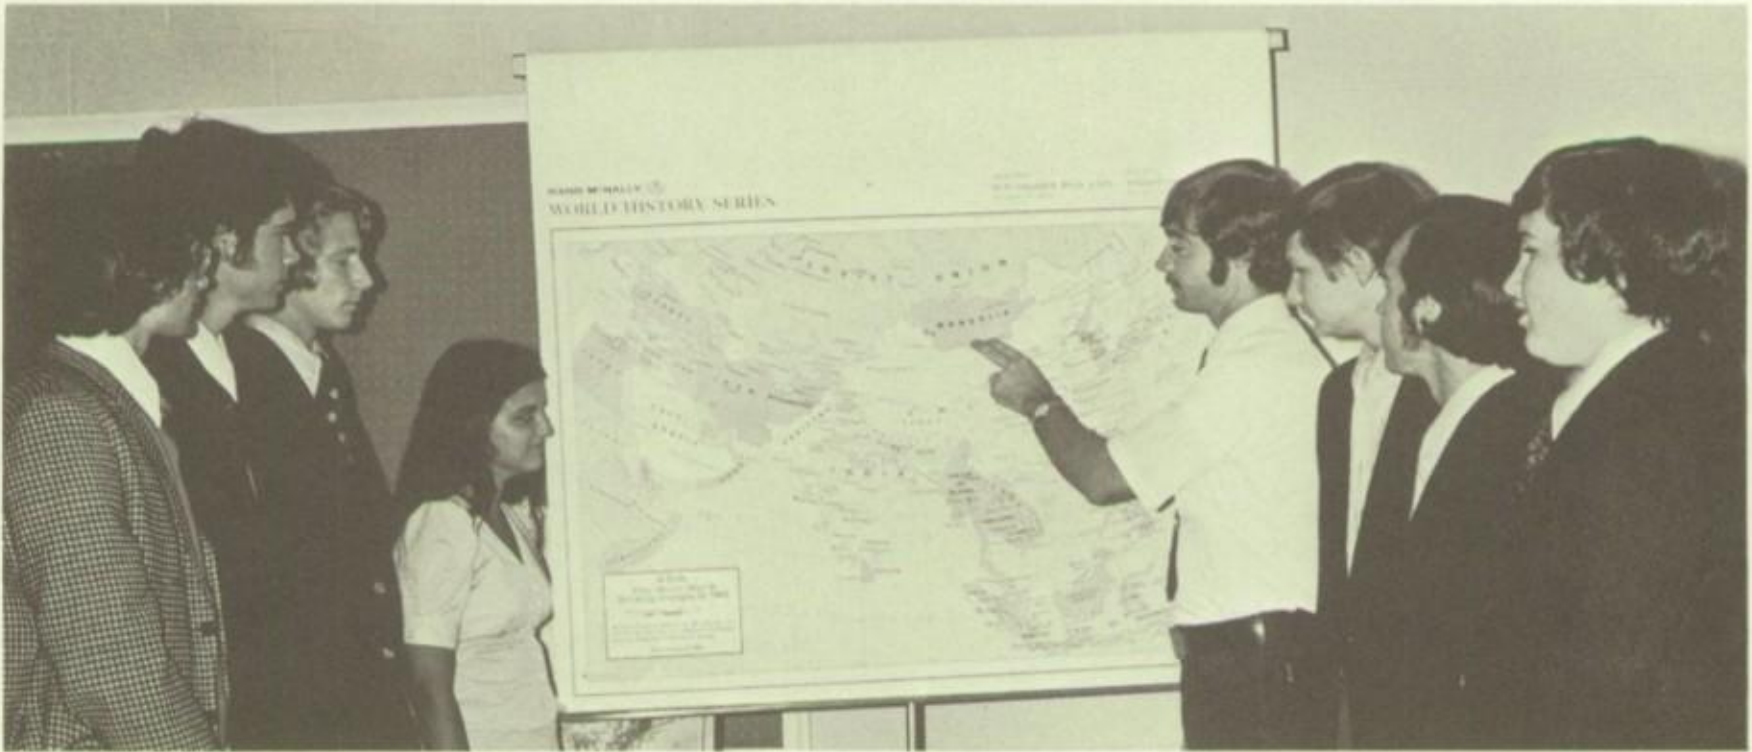

Preparations are being made for the annual dramatic production. This year it will be the play, Hyman Kaplan, from the book by Benjamin Zavin. As in the past, tryouts will be open to the whole student body. They will begin the week of February 4th. Presentation of the play is scheduled for April 5th. For more details see Mr. Rancourt.

The student-teachers learned that long hours of preparation precede a lesson while the future lawyers watched their mentors' accurate procedures in the courtroom. For the seniors, it was an enriching and worthwhile two weeks.

UMOC

The third annual U.M.O.C. contest, sponsored by the Key Club, took a different shape this year. Camille Nutt, representing the sophomore class, was the first girl to vie for the title Ugliest Man on Campus. The final results of the week-long campaign to raise money to send a handicapped child to Camp Easter were as follows: Z. Dunn, junior, ugly; R. Meier, freshman, runner-up; L. Schenck, senior, good-looking; and C. Nutt, gorgeous.

amid the noise & haste, & remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. ♪ Speak your truth quietly & clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons; they are vexatious to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain & bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. ♪ But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. ♪ Be yourself. ♪ ♪ Especially, do not feign affection. ♪ Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity & disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. ♪ ♪ Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue & loneliness. ♪ ♪ Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. ♪ You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees & the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, & whatever your labors & aspirations, ♪ in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul.
